

Brock Bales practices in the areas of domestic and international estate planning, asset protection, and entity formation and governance. He assists in the design and implementation of both traditional and sophisticated estate plans, including the drafting of wills, trusts, disability documents, and partnership and limited liability company agreements. Prior to joining the firm in 2019, Mr. Bales consulted for Black River, Ltd., an oil and gas appraisal firm in San Antonio, and served as of counsel for Dunn Smith LLP in oil and gas fraud litigation. Between law school semesters, Mr. Bales clerked for the General Counsel of Liberty University and the General Counsel of Guidestone Financial Resources.

Education

Liberty University School of Law (J.D., magna cum laude, Law Review Executive Editor, Certificate of Concentration in Taxation, 2017)

Liberty University School of Business (B.S., summa cum laude, in Finance, 2014)

Professional Affiliations and Honors

American Bar Association

State Bar of Texas

Texas Young Lawyers Association

Liberty University: 2017 Roger C. Bern Planning Award for excellence in business, tax, and estate planning

Liberty University: 2014 Dr. John D. George Leadership Award and Scholarship for leadership in managing a student mutual fund

Publications

And Then It Was Gone: A Critique of Section 10(b) Collective Scierter Pleading in the Sixth Circuit's Bondali Decision, 11 LIBERTY U. L. REV. 69 (2017).

Contact Information

E-mail: bdales@emalegal.com

Direct Phone: 512.370.2739

Fax: 512.370.2751